ON THE GOSPEL

And he was casting out a devil, and the same the same was dumb.

In Matthew it is recorded that the possessed man was blind as well as dumb. Three wonders therefore were wrought in this one man: the blind was given sight, the dumb speaks, and he that was possessed was delivered of an evil spirit. This is daily renewed in the conversion of the faithful; for being first freed from a demon they then look upon the Light of the Faith, and their lips that before kept silence are now opened in praise of God.

~ St. Venerable Bede, Priest, Confessor, and Doctor; 672-735.
