All are welcome to Sunday Brunch in the basement following holy mass.

Today's Mass:

New Year's Day, Friday, Jan. 1, 2010 The Octave Day of Christmas, is a holy day of obligation. There will be three masses on that day: 8:00 am low mass, 10:00 am high mass, and a 5:30 pm low mass as normal on First Fridays.

Please pray for Casey Fanning, nephew of Cami Blair, who recently died in a car accident; Thomas Flood, father of Fr. Eric Flood (FSSP District Superior), who recently died with the blessing of his priest son at his side.

Thank you to the choir for singing at the Christmas Midnight Mass and for everyone who pitched in for the flowers which adorn the altar!

Fr. Hathaway wishes to thank St. Michael's Latin Mass Community for the card and donation given him on the occasion of celebrating the birth of our Redeemer. May God reward you all!

A plenary indulgence may be gained by publically saying or singing the Te Deum in thanksgiving on the last day of the year (December 31). A plenary indulgence may also be gained by publically saying or singing the Veni Creator Spiritus on the first day of the year (January 1). (Handbook of Indulgences, Norms 19 and 20).

A gift in Christmastide:

I have a word of plural number,
The foe of peace and tranquil slumber;
But if you add an "s" to this,
Strange is the metamorphosis.
What was plural is now no more,
And sweet what bitter was before.

A BLESSED AND HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL
... may it be free of all anxiety
&
profitless cares.

ON THE GOSPEL

And the child grew,...

He could have come forth from the womb in the fullness of adult life, but this would have seemed fantastic. So he grew up naturally; hence, the child grew and waxed strong. And, had He revealed all His wisdom, he would have been looked upon as something strange. So He revealed Himself with the growth of years, that He might fill the whole earth. Not as one who receives wisdom is he said to grow in wisdom. How can He be perfected which was from the beginning perfect? Hence we read, full of wisdom and the grace of God was in Him.

~ St. Theophylactus, Patriarch of Bulgaria; 765-840.
